The State Social Insurance Fund Board (hereinafter Sodra) did not provide any information on the debts of insurers for the period from 16 April 2020 to 17 September 2020, therefore the information for this period does not have any effect on the company's credit history and solvency assessment. Details

The State Social Insurance Fund Board (hereinafter Sodra) did not provide any information on the debts of insurers for the period from 16 April 2020 to 16 September 2020, therefore the information for this period does not have any effect on the company's credit history and solvency assessment. The provision of information was restored on 18 September 2020. From this date, debts to Sodra are reflected in the system of the credit bureau and any significant payment delays affect the company's creditworthiness. Creditinfo displays public information on debts to Sodra in the same way as it is provided by Sodra, i.e. Creditinfo does not change, modify or assess the accuracy or correctness of such information. According to Creditinfo opinion, the fact that the company requires deferral to pay its social security contributions to Sodra shows that the company is facing liquidity problems. Collapse
